

NORTHWEST FOSSIL FEST

Artwork by Mauricio Anton

The Pleistocene Epoch August 8, 2015

Saturday, 10:00am to 4:00pm

presented by the
North America Research Group
nargpaleo.org

At the Rice Museum!

Encouraging responsible stewardship of Earth's paleontological resources;
and to promote scientific research,
communication and public education.

Inspire, Inquire, Interact

- Lectures on Ice Age mammals of the Northwest.
- Activities for kids, including screening for shark teeth, a fossil hunt, and other educational games.
- Fossil identification help.
- Exhibits of exceptional specimens of Pleistocene fauna, including Mike Full's Yamhill River Project specimens and Dave Ellingson's specimens from Woodburn High.
- Fossil preparation demonstrations.
- Complimentary entrance into the world famous Rice Museum.

Rice NW Museum of Rocks and Minerals
26385 NW Groveland Drive, Hillsboro, Oregon

Mammoth Produced and distributed by Triebold Paleontology Incorporated

For more information about NARG, visit www.nargpaleo.org or call 503-364-2979